ST. Two thousand newly made widows and orphans are dependent on charity, and even though the scourge were to cease at once these helpless people must be assisted during the coming winter. The relief associations are without funds, and unless substantial aid is furnished soon the poor and sick must die of neglect or succumb to hunger and want. REDUCTION OF THEATRE PRICES.—The reduction in the prices of admission to the theatres in New York has commenced in earnest, and a week or two sooner than was anticipated. The Grand Opera House has gone back to the anti-war basis of fifty cents, while the Lamberlik-Di Murska Combination announce a performance at Booth's at prices ranging from $1.50 down to $1, instead of $2.50 to $3, as heretofore. After this company leaves the reduction will still be in force as regards the dramatic performances—that is to say, seventy five cents instead of $1 to the family circle. It is tolerably certain that all other places of public amusement in New York will have to follow the example.

Governor Shaw, of New Hampshire, who was one of the judges at the baby show at the State Fair last week, was surprised, Saturday, by finding on his doorstep an infant two months old. Having had enough of babies for one week, the Governor turned the infant over to the police authorities.

A new way of preserving autumn leaves is given as follows: Iron them fresh with a warm, but not hot iron, on which some spermaceti has been lightly rubbed. This method, it is said, preserves their tints and gives them a gloss which cannot be secured by other means.

Messrs. John Arrington & Sons, of Petersburg, Va., advertise through the Petersburg papers that the rumor that they had suspended is untrue—they are prepared to pay in currency every dollar they owe, and are as liberal in advancing as the stringency in the money market will allow.

NOT A CANDIDATE.—Albert Johnson, Esq., informs us that he is not a candidate for the office of Treasurer of the Insane Asylum, as stated by us yesterday. We only stated it upon rumor, (which, by the way, came to us very straight) and as a matter of course cheerfully yield him space for the correction.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Jos. Van Holt Nash, the well known Petersburg stationer and book dealer, is registered at the Yarboro House.

H. H. Martindale, Esq., of the house of J. W. C. Dulaney & Co., Baltimore, is in the city.

Capt. S. T. Williams, political editor of the NEWS, is on a trip to Philadelphia.

Maj. R. S. Tucker, of North Carolina, was registered at Jarratt's Hotel, Petersburg, yesterday.

DELEGATES TO STATE COUNCIL FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—At a meeting of Oak City Council held Friday night last, Messrs. T. H. Hill, L. Branson, R. H. Whitaker, Dr. C. D. Rice and D. W. Whitaker were elected delegates to the State Council which meets in Tarboro on the 19th of November. We learn that the people of Tarboro are making preparation to accommodate a large delegation, and from what brother Whitaker tells us they will have their houses full. He thinks it will be the largest State Council ever held in North Carolina.

WE MOURN HIS DEPARTURE.—The printers and midnight local editors of Raleigh truly mourn the departure from our midst of John Bragg, Esq., of the Raleigh telegraph office, who has accepted the position of Manager of the South and Atlantic Telegraph Office at Augusta, Ga., He wrote the best copy on a midnight telegram that a printer ever nodded o'er, and it is hope against hope that his place will ever be filled. We congratulate Augusta upon the valuable accession of Mr. Bragg to her business and society. He is every inch a gentleman, of the very highest social position, young, good-looking and on the carpet.

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL AND THE LATE STATE FAIR.—We have already copied heavily from our exchanges what has been said about the late State State Fair, but we offer no apology for giving place to the following handsome compliment to the Society and its officers from the Wilmington Journal of Friday, Major Engelhard, the Editor, being in attendance here the whole week. Says the Journal:

"It is not our purpose, as it will be impossible, to give in detail a description of the Fair. Nor is it necessary. As an industrial exhibition it is without parallel in the State. In the expense and completeness of its preparation, in the quality and quantity of articles exhibited, in the number of visitors, in the general arrangements of the buildings and grounds, in the order and quiet which everywhere prevailed, the late State Fair was all that its friends could have desired. The efforts of its managers were rewarded by a success as creditable to them as the exhibition was worthy of North Carolina. For once, at least, the old State aroused herself, and made honorable exhibition of some of the resources of her vast storehouse. The great riches with which Nature has blessed her, and the creations of the genius and industry of her sons and daughters were gathered together in generous rivalry, furnishing a more substantial evidence of the resources, energy and genius of the State, than on any similar occasion within our knowledge.

"While the absence of Mr. Voorhees, the great Western orator and statesman, may have been a disappointment to some who wished to hear that distinguished gentleman, there certainly could have been no disappointment to those who desired to listen to an eloquent and able speech. When it was ascertained, late Thursday night, that Mr. Voorhees could not possibly be present, Hon. M. W. Ransom was appealed to by the President and Executive Committee to supply the vacancy. The shortness of the notice, the great expectation of the people, the fame of the announced orator, were sufficient reasons to refuse, but this distinguished son of North Carolina has at all times and in every field shown himself worthy of the consideration and honors which have been bestowed upon him. His speech was a masterly and eloquent effort, reflecting credit upon the speaker, and worthy of the great occasion. Gen. Ransom deserves the thanks of the people of the State not more for his magnificent address than for his willingness to serve them under such trying and disadvantageous circumstances.

"It would give us pleasure to speak in detail of those whose thoughts and efforts have contributed to bring about this great success, and whose management has given such manifest satisfaction. We will say, however, that to the President, Col. T. M. Holt, and the Secretary, Capt. R T. Fulghum, the Society is greatly indebted for its success. No men ever labored more faithfully or more unselfishly, and we congratulate them on the splendid success which has rewarded their labors. Dr. W. J. Hawkins, President, and Capt. A. B. Andrews, Superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston and Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroads, by an intelligent and patriotic liberality to the Society, did much to insure the completion of the buildings and grounds, and to establish the success of the exhibition. Several members of the Executive Committee, notably Col. Heck, Dr. Blacknall, Gen. Hoke and Col. Young were active, liberal and effective in their labors. We trust that those who may have charge of the destinies of the Society in the coming year will render as good an account of their stewardship."

EFFEMINACY.—The effeminate man is a weak poultice. He is a cross between table-beer and ginger-pop, with the cork left out; a fresh-water mermaid found in a cow pasture, with her hands filled with dandelions. He is a teacup full of syllabub; a kitten in trousers; a sick monkey with a blonde mustache. He is a vine without any tendrils; a fly drowned in oil; a paper kite in a dead calm. He lives like a butterfly—nobody can tell why. He is as harmless as a penny-worth of sugar candy, and as useless as a shirt-button without a hole. He is as lazy as a slug, and has no more hope than a last year's summer's fly. He goes through life on tiptoe, and like cologne water spilt over the ground.

PARDONED.—The Governor yesterday pardoned Albert Pruden, colored, convicted of larceny at the fall term, 1872, of Hertford Superior Court, and sentenced to three years imprisonment in the penitentiary. The application for the pardon was numerously signed by citizens of Hertford and by the Judge and Solicitor of the Court in which he was convicted.

OAK SMITH HEARD FROM—HE COMETH WITH $5,000,000 TO BUY THE WESTERN ROAD.—A letter from Appleton Oak Smith, dated London, Oct. 11th, 1873, to a gentleman in this city says: "I had made arrangements for the consolidation of the 'Western' road with the 'Midland' and expected to have been on my way home ere this with sufficient "credits" to have taken over the whole concern under fair arrangements with the stockholders.

"The "Midland" Company had fully arranged for the sum of 1,000,000 pounds, over $5,000,000, when this dreadful American crash came. There is no doing anything at the present moment in the American Railway schemes and there is no other way but to defer it for a time.

"The "Midland" Company will guarantee to finish their road within three years from the 1st of January next, and will take it subject to all incumbrances, and pay a fair sum in full paid Midland stock to the private shareholders if they will pass a bill transferring it with all its assets, franchises and equities to the Midland.

"I shall probably be instructed before I leave as to how the present incumbrances are to be arranged. * * * * I trust that some arrangement will be made to secure the "Western" in the interests of your own people for our Grand Trunk Line, "the Midland."

TEMPERENCE.—Brother Whitaker, editor of the Friend of Temperance of this city, was present at the grand temperance banquet given at the Exchange Hotel, Richmond, Thursday night. From the Dispatch of Friday, we clip the following:

"In introducing the toasts Major Carrington said that it was proposed to have on this occasion a feast of reason and a flow of soul, unaided by the stimulus of wine."

The following toast was then read by W. P. Gretter:

"Our Sister Councils: Bound to us by the ties of a common interest, may they increase in number until we can recognize one in every State and Territory in our entire country.

Rev. R. H. Whitaker, Secretary of the State Council of North Carolina, and editor of the Friend of Temperance, said that just as in the trying days of '61 North Carolina followed the lead of Virginia, and sent her true sons to battle against the common foe, so in '65 the old North State caught up the battle-cry raised at Petersburg against a greater foe and had been ringing it through her borders until he is able to-night to bring good tidings of the "state of the order" there. He spoke of the general prosperity of the Order, and gave a most hopeful augury of its future.

FASHION—The fashionable umbrella is now more attenuated than ever.

Ladies hats this season consist chiefly of two bows or ribbon and a stiff ostrich feather.

The Elizabethan ruffs are assuming proportions more ponderous and awe inspiring than ever.

Cameos have gone out of fashion for jewelry, having been succeeded by entaglios, antique if possible.

It is fashionable now to have all the maid servants in the household to wear caps, after the English style.

Ladies just from Europe wear the hair very plain and low on the neck, a style all the rage in Paris.

Fringes are to be very fashionable as trimmings this winter. Some of the handsomer sorts are as expensive as fine laces.

War against gilt and imitation jewelry continue furiously. As a result very little of it is worn by would-be fashionable ladies.

Peacock blue is the new color for sashes which are worn of the widest kind of ribbon, and with long ends down to the skirt of the dress. Peacock blue is a very soft and beautiful shade.

COTTON OPERATIONS THE PAST WEEK.—From our daily reports of the city market it was shown that cotton opened brisk on Monday morning at 14½c., and closed steady on that day at the same figures; the receipts on Monday, in consequence of the severe weather, being only 25 bales. Tuesday the receipts were 98 bales and the market again closed firm at 14½c. Wednesday the market was drooping at 14c.; receipts on that day 262 bales. Thursday the price fell to 13¾@13¾c.; receipts 224 bales. Friday the receipts were 206 bales, and the market dull at 13@13½c. Yesterday, Saturday, 12½c. was the highest price paid, and many sales were made at 12½c. Thus it will be seen that the tendency is still downward from a ruinous price to our farmers. We sincerely hope that we will have but few sales to report at these prices. If possible the farmers should hold their cotton at home till a living price is offered for it, and we would advise them not to sell at present ruinous rates.

CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK.—A few days ago a little son of one of our leading cotton merchants, Mc——, went on a visit to his grandfather in the country. A morning or two after his arrival he visited the cotton gin, and finding there several bales of cotton which had never been sampled, he immediately returned to the house and said—"Grandpa, lend me your knife?" The old gentleman thinking he wished to whittle, willingly complied. The little fellow again visited the gin and commenced to cut and slash in a most vigorous manner. When he was about to plunge the knife into the last bale his grandfather appeared on the scene and enquired what he was up to? The little fellow thinking he had not done wrong, replied—"I am sampling your cotton, that is the way pa does, and I thought I would do it for him, to save him the trouble when you send it to Raleigh."

PETTY & JONES.—Attention is called to the attractive announcement of Messrs. Petty & Jones, to be found in our advertising columns this morning. They have a superior stock of boots and shoes, both for ladies and gentlemen's wear, Burts' boots and gaiters, and other first-class work at low prices. This is their first stock of goods, consequently all new and purchased at panic prices. Call and see for yourselves, and be satisfied that they will make good every word they say of their stock.

DIED.—Robert C. Miller, Esq., of Caldwell county, died at the Insane Asylum on Thursday last and was buried in the cemetery of that institution yesterday morning. Rev. Dr. Mason, of Christ's Episcopal Church of this city, performed the last sad rites of the church over his grave. Mr. Miller at one time represented the counties of Burke and Caldwell in the State Legislature, and was quite a prominent man of his section. His mind yielded to the shock of financial embarrassment, and for two years has been an inmate of the Asylum. Peace to his ashes.

NORTH CAROLINA VIEWS.—Rufus Morgan, the well known landscape artist and sketchist of Morganton, will accept our thanks for a number of stereoscopic views of Western North Carolina, embracing the beautiful scenery of the French Broad, Swannanoa and Lynnville rivers. At considerable trouble and expense, Mr. Morgan has taken exact views of every notable point in the west, every mountain, every peak, valley and river, and offers the same to the trade at reasonable prices. Every family should have the views as a part of their parlor furniture.

THE PAYMENT OF THE PREMIUM LIST.—We are authorized to say that the premiums awarded at the late State Fair will be paid on and after Tuesday morning. There will be several corrections made that morning in the list published.

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

SUNDAY.....OCTOBER 26, 1873.

A FRENCHMAN proposes to find out if Venus is inhabited. A sensible exchange says, "Don't; we can't send missionaries."

THE late Exposition in Indianapolis did not pay expenses by $88,000, to the surprise of the merchants who guaranteed the enterprise. It was supposed that the Exposition had been successful.

THE Battleboro Advance of this week announces that it will next week be removed to Wilson, and in consequence thereof no paper will be issued from that office until week after next. We wish the Advance a continuance of that success which has attended it since its foundation.

THE Mexican war-veterans in all sections of the country are appointing delegates to the National Convention which is to meet in Washington City on the 15th of November. These veterans are entitled to a pension and a land grant from the Government, to obtain which are the principal objects of the Convention.

THE Marion (Va.) Herald requests all papers that copied the rumor that the Rev. Dr. MUNSEY, of the M. E, Church, had become "a common drunkard, intensely profane," etc., to publish a denial of the whole statement upon the assurance of some of the most respectable men, ministers and others, who reside at Jonesboro, Tenn., the residence of Dr. MUNSEY. The Herald says the cards of Rev. J. L. M. FRENCH, a minister at Jonesboro, and Mr. F. W. EARNEST, a prominent lawyer of the same place, "will be a sufficient refutation of the cowardly and base attack upon this distinguished minister."

THE Battleboro Advance is discussing the question of usury, and hopes the Legislature this winter will do away with the law which limits the rate of interest on moneyed contracts to 8 per cent., and on all other contracts to 6 per cent. It urges the importance of keeping our money at home, and believes the present laws serve to drive it into other States where better rates of interest are offered. Says the Advance:

"It is urged that if money is left free like other property, the extortioners and harpies of the land would prey upon the people and extort from them most ruinous and outrageous rates of interest. This argument has long since been exploded by the results of experience, and the truth is the very opposite. Money will command, in some shape, what it is worth. And where the interest is restricted below the actual value, those who will not violate the law, in such cases, send their money where they command its worth without risk of losing it and those who run the risk at home, charge extra for that risk which of course is paid by the borrower."

Hon. A. M. Waddell.

It is pleasant to find a politician in North Carolina who has devoted a portion of his time to archæological research, and who evidently takes great interest in all that concerns the early history of our grand old mother.

The lecture of Col. Waddell on Friday night was not intended to captivate by flight of humor or eloquence, but to turn the attention of thinking men to the rich field that demands investigation—the early history of our State.

The lecturer, we suppose, had been searching the records of Icelandic tradition in the Congressional Library, and gave many extracts tending to show the settlement of North Carolina, long anterior to the voyage of Sir Walter Raleigh.

He was deeply interested in his theme, and seemed to think the evidence indisputable and overwhelming. While we were not convinced, we are ready to acknowledge the ingeniousness of the argument and the importance of the subject. In the name of our citizens and the plague-stricken people of Memphis, we extend our cordial thanks to the lecturer.

The North Carolina and Tennessee Counterfeiters.

We published yesterday morning a detailed account from the Washington Republican of the detection and arrest of a large number of counterfeiters in East Tennessee who had been operating with an organized band in Western North Carolina. The same article stated that Marshal DOUGLAS was at work in the Western portion of this State with an armed force, accompanied by a number of detectives who had become thoroughly acquainted with their operating in the counterfeit business, with a view of arresting the parties. The Republican had not heard the result of the movements of Marshal DOUGLAS, but the Charlotte Observer of yesterday morning gives the following news from him:

"We get startling news from passengers on the Statesville train yesterday. On Wednesday, according to the information in our possession, Messrs. John Moore and Washington Brawley, both of them moneyed men, living in the southern part of Iredell county, were indicted by secret detectives in the service of the United States, for passing counterfeit money. Our informant states that facts are in the possession of the detectives which will implicate a large number of persons, some of them prominent and highly esteemed citizens. We learn further that it is believed, if not known, that there are gangs of counterfeiters in the counties of Cabarrus, Iredell, Mecklenburg, Rowan, Wilkes, and a number of other western counties. The gentleman from whom we get the information of the arrest of the parties named, tells us that it is rumored that the information leading to the arrests spoken of was given the officers by one King, a citizen of Cabarrus county, who was himself a member of the band, and who, in the elegant language of the ku klux, "puked" on the others.

"We make this publication with deep regret, but give it for what it is worth. We hope the two persons arrested will be able to show themselves innocent of the charges laid at their doors. What will be done with them between now and the time of their trial, we are not advised. On Wednesday night they were under guard in Statesville."

Do Not Sell Your Cotton.

Under the pressure of the cotton market, induced by various causes, which has served to run the price of this staple within the last week down to ruinous figures, it would be worse than folly for the farmer to force his cotton upon the market, and we would honestly advise them to sell no more at the present prices than the necessities of their case demand. Various reasons are given for the present condition of the market—the financial pressure, the "cornering" on cotton in New York, the partial suspension of work in the cotton factories of the North, too large a crop, the desire of the manufacturers of the North to force upon the attention of Congress this winter the necessity of a free banking system by exhibiting the result to the cotton market from the present system, and a dozen other causes—but be the cause what it may, it is certain that the crop of this year is not up to and certainly not above the average, the cotton crop of the South is worth just so much money, and it is both just and essential for the general welfare of the whole South that the farmer should not be sacrificed, as this would paralize every interest and put the farmer in a helpless condition for another year's operations. There is no reason why there should be any panic with the farmer—if he can possibly hold his cotton until the present pressure is over, he should undoubtedly do it as a matter of self-protection. Let him sell only so much as his absolute obligations and necessities may demand, and no more.

We have never advocated the system of holding back the crop in the fall with the hope of getting fancy prices—this policy more often results in loss than it does in gain. But we do not think it wise or at all necessary that the farmer should be made to suffer materially under the present crisis.

And further, it is not to the interest of our business men that the farmer should sell at present ruinous figures, for it is not denied that the farmer is the backbone of every interest, and when he is made to suffer, every fibre in the great body of business is made to throb responsive and to suffer equally as acute as the farming member. Then let the business men of the South assist in keeping the cotton in our midst until the present pressure is over.

It is pleasant to remember that not an hour passes in the increasing march of time but that there is a half dressed man somewhere on the earth calling for a shirt.

Three of the professors of a South Carolina university have resigned, in consequence of the admission of a negro student.

A jealous Milwaukee wife fired two revolver shots at her husband, neither of which took effect, but he has quit flirting.

Of thirty thousand Americans permanently residing in Paris, twenty five thousand are said to be from the South.

MERCHANT TAILOR.

"THE APPAREL OFT PROCLAIMS THE MAN"

is one of the wise sayings of the immortal Shakespeare, and no man ever uttered a more truthful sentence.

WEIKEL,

The Merchant Tailor,

who has just returned from New York with the largest and most attractive stock of fall and winter goods ever brought to the city, is the man to furnish that "Apparel." Those that have been served by him can truthfully testify to his ability to cut and fit, while no job is permitted to leave his Manufacturing Department that is not O. K. in every particular.

His stock embraces in part,

FRENCH ENGLISH AND
DOESKINS,
FANCY CASSIMERES,
BEAVERS,
PILOT CLOTHS,
CHINCHILLA and
ESQUIMAUX BEAVERS,
EMOLINE,
MILTON CLOTHS for OVERCOATS,
ENGLISH CHEVIOTS, for SUITING, SCOTCH CLOTHS
and TWEEDS.

The Manufacturing Department will employ only the most experienced and skilled workmen, and every job has the immediate supervision of the Cutter.
Orders from a distance promptly attended to.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal. It effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the affected part, or a few drops of it in the cavity of a tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.
H. POTTER."

Prepared by E. R. Beckwith, (successor to Dr. John Beckwith) Proprietor, Petersburg, Va. Sold by Druggist generally at 25 cents per box. Joseph Carr, Wholesale Agent, Petersburg, Va.

THE DAILY NEWS.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Asheville is afflicted with a roving band of Gypsies.

The "Spinning Jenny" is whirling in Fayetteville.

The mountains around Morganton are white with snow.

Wilson is organizing amateur theaticals for the coming fall season.

Hen parties (whatever they are) are getting very popular in Charlotte.

The approaching Fair of the Albemarle Agricultural Society promises to be a grand success.

Dr. E. D. Barnes, of Wilson, has removed to Philadelphia to carry on the practice of Dentistry.

The grand jury of New Hanover county has returned thirty-two new indictments the present week.

Cotton thieves are depredating on whole bales in Battleboro, and the Advance calls loudly for a remedy for the evil.

Edward Skinner and a colored man by the name of Abram Whidbee, were drowned by the capsizing of a boat at Hertford on Monday last.

Franklinton is coming up fast. W. S. Mallory, an enterprising merchant of that town, advertises that he will make liberal advances on cotton to be held.

The U. S. Federal Court, Judge Brooks presiding, is in session at Elizabeth City. The Plymouth post office robbery case is on trial this week.

Silas Edwards, colored, of Greene county, caught a boy 17 or 18 years of age stealing turnips. The boy had heard that "dead men tell no tales" and Silas now "sleeps in the valley."

The Commissioners of the town of Franklinton have passed an ordinance prohibiting the purchase of cotton between the setting of the sun and the rising thereof. Sensible to the last.

The Western Expositor tells of a baby born in McDowell that has six fingers on each hand, without eyes or ears, and is a breathing, living phenomenon. The enterprising localizer of that journal interviewed a lady of McDowell county, who vouched for this singular freak of nature.

Avery, of the Piedmont Press, is getting up a baby show for the coming Hickory Fair, and offers as a premium for the finest looking baby a potriat of himself, handsomely gotten up by Robinson, of Ashville. For the second best, a second-hand picture of Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer.

James, of the Wilmington Journal, took upon himself the trouble to calculate the number of times the human heart beat in a year, but was not able to find out the name of a white woman convicted of infanticide at the late term of Anson Superior Court. The verdict was returned on Wednesday, but sentence had not been pronounced up to Thursday night.

John Wilson and William Wilson, brothers, were fatally stabbed while engaged in a difficulty with George Edney, at Burnsville, Yancey county, a few days ago. Edney received a serious wound from a pistol shot in his side. The Western Expositor says many persons were involved in the difficulty, which was the most serious known since the war. The Wilsons are not expected to survive.

At Bakersville, Yancey county, lives a man of a strange religious faith which he preaches. He acknowledges the divinity of Christ, but denies His deity. He acknowledges the operations of the Holy Spirit upon the human heart. He contends for a present hell, denies the personality of the devil and a final judgment.

His name is Prof. Bowman, but according to a correspondent of the Western Expositor has lost his influence and will not take many along with him.

A skeleton, supposed to be that of Mrs. Elizabeth Lowell, who mysteriously disappeared from Lewiston, Maine, on the night of June 12th, 1870, has been found in the woods near Barker's Mills. It was headless. The remains were enclosed in a black silk dress, trimmed with lace, which some ladies have identified as that worn by Mrs. Lowell. Witnesses have testified that Mr. Lowell lived unhappily with his wife, and one says that he was seen to chase her about a room, pistol in hand, threatening to shoot her. Soon after the lady's disappearance Mr. Lowell married again. Some months ago Mrs. Lowell's mother wrote the following from Holden to a friend in Lewiston:

I dreamed that I saw Lizzie in the woods near Barker's Mills, on her knees, begging for life. Her hands were uplifted, and she was saying, "Don't kill me! don't kill me!" but it seemed to me that somebody killed her and buried her there.

As prophetic dreams have not much legal value, and as the skeleton was found in the place indicated, Mrs. Burton (the mother) should be forced to pass through a very incisive examination as to the source of her knowledge of the affair.

Senator Boutwell has given his views on financial affairs in a lecture. The crisis, he says, has been produced by the excess of the voluman of paper over the actual wants of the country, the balance of trade against us, and the speculation in gold in Wall street. He is in favor of subsidy to enable our ship-builders to acquire control of the carrying trade, and condemns the practice of banks taking money on deposit and paying interest on it. A merchant giving paper on time finds it mature when he knows he has got it to pay, but that given on call matures not by time, but the apprehensions of men, and no business can or ought to resist such a practice.

A touching incident is reported from Chattanooga. An utter stranger called on a respectable farmer, recently, and asked him if his house had not been robbed during the war. The farmer replied that it had. "I," said the stranger, "was one of the marauding party that did it. I took a little locket." "That locket," said the farmer, bursting into tears, "had been worn by my dear, dear child." "Here it is," replied the stranger, visibly affected: "I am rich; let me make restitution. Here is $20 for yout little son." He gave the farmer a $50 bill, and received $30 in change. He then wrung the farmer's hand warmly and left. The farmer has since dried his tears and loaded his shotgun.

MEMPHIS.

The Fatal Plague—The Dire and Dreadful Condition of the People.

A Memphis correspondent of the Norfolk (Va.) Journal, under date of the 20th inst., gives the following interest sketch of the condition of affairs in that city:

As I anticipated in my last communication, the fatal plague which has curtained our city in its dark and deadly folds for so many long weeks, is gradually abating under the healthful influence of the bracing autumnal weather now upon us. The invigorating effects of a purer and better oxygen is witnessed in the elastic step and cheerful salutation of pedestrians, and hope, auspicious hope, now 'sweeps the furrowed lines of anxious thought away.' I gather from the medical men of my acquaintance that while we may expect the disease to linger for some time in our midst, yet it has lost its most malignant characteristics. Heaven knows our afflictions have been dire and dreadful, and although reports disseminated abroad may be in some measure exagerated, yet it is almost impossible to exagerate the frightful details. Parties have baen found dead on the streets and in rooms where, isolated, without attention, they have raved out their lives, the bare walls echoing back the morbid cries of delirium and death. When the malady had reached the climax of its fury in the afflicted district, a member of the Howard Association found two corpses in one house, seated in chairs, the countenances of which were disfigured by the ghastly signs of approaching decomposition. During these scenes of horror, when strong men tremble and turn pale, when philosophy itself is at fault in finding no comfort, when man feels his weakness in contemplating the power of the Almighty Ruler of the universe, who can destroy even as He has created, our hearts and minds can more fully appreciate such a noble act of heroism as I am now to record. Never during the existence of the scourge, even though the casual observer may have witnessed scenes of indescribable distress, never have we felt such sadness—known such deep and sacred sorrow, as when it was imparted to this stricken community that impartial Death had touched, with remorseless scythe, the life of our heroine, Mattie Stevenson. This name, no doubt, is unknown to your readers; but ah! 'tis deeply graven upon our memories and enshrined in our hearts inmost recesses. She came to us a few weeks since from Illinois, without even imparting her mission to the dear home circle which enthroned her as its "life angel," and in which there was a "wreath for each toil, a charm for every woe." From her home of affluence and wealth she came unaided, unattended, and offering her services to the Howard Association, was assigned to duty. Refusing to receive anything, even the delicately tendered offering of grateful hearts, her labors were unremitting.

Many a soul will greet her in immortality, for her soft touch was frequently the last upon the burning brow, and her prayers oft mingled with those of God's ministers who prayed for the "soul just lingering on the lips." Her labors and constant attendance in the infected district proved too much for her unacclimated and frail system. The dread demon of pestilence touched her with his wand and she sank. While ill, every attention that skill and affection could supply was hers, but it was all in vain. She was buried in an eligible spot in our own "Elmwood," the members of the Howard Association acting as pall-bearers. Although a large concourse of people were present there were no pompous obsequies. Every heart wept as the few touching words of the minister were spoken; for we feit that in dying she had made herself ours; and the white stone that is to be erected above her will bear the name, and record the self-immolation of the Florence Nightingale of Memphis.

Such acts of heroism, and the noble generosity of the North and West during our affliction, should abrogate the last vestige of sectional feeling in our breasts, and should teach us that kind hearts and noble minds are not indigenous to any clime, nor peculiarly fostered by any sun.

The universal sympathy which has been so practically exercised in behalf of our afflicted city has won from Memphians a debt of gratitude which will live as long as the memory of these dark and unhappy days.

On the 10th inst. the mortality from the malady was 55, on the 11th 45, on the 12th 46, and on the 13th it decreased to 38, and has averaged since the latter date about 25 per day, until yesterday, when it was but 17. These figures, when compared with the frightful numbers shown two weeks ago, give us hope that the pestilence is slowly but steadily and surely abating. Heaven grant the fullest fruition of our hopes may be realized.

Satisfaction Guaranteed in Every Instance.

OTHER MACHINES HAVE THEIR PECULIAR MERITS—THIS HAS NO DEFECT.

The Washing of a Family of Ordinary size Easily Accomplished before Breakfast!

Have Never Known One That Failed to Give Satisfaction!

No other Machine can be sold after the "FRANKLIN" has been Tried.

From One to Two Thousand Dollars a Year Guaranteed to Working Men!

Every County Sold in Which it has been Introduced.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD TO COMPETE WITH IT!!!

The inventor of the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" was owner of the right to manufacture the "Improved" Woman's Friend in certain territory. While manufacturing these machines, and watching attentively their action and the manner in which they operated, and the results, he discovered certain prominent defects therein. He spent ten months in the study of the subject of finding remedies for these defects. He has at last succeeded—and as the result of his investigation and study, he offers to the public the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER," which is by far the best Washing Machine ever patented. We claim as an evidence of its merit that "LETTERS PATENT" were granted over all others.

It will wash anything from a Lace Collar to a Bed Blanket. It will cleanse the clothing without tearing and more thoroughly than can possibly be done by hand labor or the use of the rubbing board. With one-fourth of the labor four times as much can be done in the same length of time as can be done by hand. We could publish columns of certificates of its worth from those who have used it, but for the present we prefer the WASHER to speak for itself. We give a few below:

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 2?th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—Mrs. Davis has tried the "FRANKLIN STEAM WASHER" and instructs me to say, in reply to your enquiry, that she is well pleased with it, and believes it to be all that you claim for it as a labor saving Machine. It does its work well and diminishes, by more than half, the labor of washing. She cheerfully recommends it.
JOSEPH J. DAVIS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 10th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—Before purchasing your Steam Washer, I paid four dollars per month for our family washing; now without any additional help, I have the washing done at home and pay fifty cents a week to have the ironing done. In this way I save $2 per month, and my clothes are much whiter, and I am satisfied, will last much longer than when washed by rubbing or the use of a board. It is all that you recommend it to be.
Very respectfully,
Mrs. C. M. COOKE.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 11th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I am using your Steam Washer, and it proves a success and I take pleasure in recommending it to the public, and testify to its being all that you represent it to be. Very respectfully,
Mrs. P. B. HAWKINS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, September 8th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been using your Franklin Steam Washer for some time and can safely say is far the best I ever saw. I cannot do without it. Mrs. A. W. WILSON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, FRANKLINTON, September 9th, 1873

SIRS—Mrs. Gibbons has been using your "Franklin Steam Washer" for two weeks and pronounces it a grand success.
Rev. H. H. GIBBONS.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, August 4th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." I acknowledge myself to have been incredulous with regard to yours, after having tested several others that had been as highly recommended to me; but the inconvenience to a large family, of not being able to get a good washer, regularly induced me to give yours a trial. I am gratified to pronounce it a perfect success. I used it according to directions, and did two week's washing in two hours, nor did I give the first RUB. Whiter or more nicely washed clothes, I have never had. It only needs a trial to convince.
Respectfully,
Mrs. W. H. FURMAN.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 12th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—Through the kindness of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, I have tried your "Steam Washer," and find it by far the best I ever used. It certainly saves a great deal of hard labor and does not damage the clothes. It is all that you recommend.
Respectfully,
Mrs. Dr. J. B CLIFTON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, June 30th, 1873.

DEAR SIRS:—I take pleasure in testifying, that I have used your "Steam Washer," with perfect success, and find it by far the most speedy and effectual mode of cleansing all kinds of fabrics I have ever known.
Very truly,
Mrs. Dr. W. R KING.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, August 5th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—My wife has been using the "Franklin Steam Washer" for some time and she, as well as the washerwoman, are highly pleased with it.
Very truly,
ELLIS MALONE, M. D.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 3rd, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used the "Steam Washer" I purchased of your agent, Mr. J. J. Person, and find that it will do more than you recommend. We are more than pleased with it. Respectfully,
S. E. COOK.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 30th, 1873.

SIRS:—I take pleasure in recommending your "Steam Washer." It is a complete success. My clothes are whiter than ever before, and that without labor. A very short while with the "Washer" will save a hard days washing.
Yours truly,
Mrs. T. C. HORTON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, LOUISBURG, July 24th, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have been using the "Steam Washer" about one month. It surpasses my expectations; it is all that you say for it. I am highly pleased.
Yours truly,
Mrs. T. A. PERSON.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, WARREN COUNTY. Sept. 15, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have tried your Steam Washer, and find it an admirable success. I cheerfully recommend it to all.
Respectfully,
Mrs. Dr. GEO. FIELD.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, FRANKLIN COUNTY, Sept. 3, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used your Steam Washer with perfect success I find it a great saving of the clothes, time and labor and more than half the soap.
Respectfully,
Mrs. J. B. LITTLEJOHN.

Messrs. BARROW & PLEASANTS, SHADY GROVE, Warren County, Oct. 1, 1873.

GENTLEMEN:—I have tested the Franklin Steam Washer, sold in this county by Mr. G. F. Littlejohn, and find it a perfect success, and I recommend it to everybody.
Yours with respect,
Mrs. J. A. WILLIAMS.

OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US:

"We take pleasure in saying that the "Franklin Steam Washer" is all that its proprietors claim it—a complete success. We hazard nothing in saying that nothing has ever been put upon the market that meets with such universal favor. We are yet to hear of the first one that does not give entire satisfaction.—Louisburg Courier.

"It is meeting with universal and unprecedented favor among domestic circles."—Rocky Mount Mail.

"Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants constitute one of the strongest and most reliable firms in Louisburg, and from what we have heard of the "Franklin Steam Washer" and the high character of the parties controling it, we have no doubt but that it is all that they represent it to be."—Biblical Recorder.

"The patentees claim for the "Franklin Steam Washer" a superiority over all others, and from the description we have had of its workings, we believe its claims are well founded."—Christian Advocate.

"We have known Messrs. Barrow and Pleasants from "our youth up," and know they would not recommend anything unworthy of patronage. They are leading merchants in Louisburg."—Asheville Citizen.

We have acquired by purchase of the Patentee, Mr. S. W. Bartholomew, the sole right to manufacture and to sell the right to manufacture the "Franklin Steam Washer" within the United States and Territories.

We now offer the "Franklin Steam Washer" to the American people with full confidence that it will do all that we claim for it, and in order to introduce it as rapidly as possible, we are offering great inducements to working men who want to make money; we will sell State or County rights on very reasonable terms; for instance, we will sell the right to a county with ten thousand inhabitants for one hundred dollars. Within twelve months, if properly managed, the person can sell from three to five hundred Washers, at a profit of five dollars each, and his right will be worth more at the expiration of that time than it was at first, from the fact that it has been introduced and will sell in almost every family.

To parties wishing to buy State or county rights, we will, send, on receipt of five dollars, just one-half of the retail price, the "Franklin Steam Washer" complete, with instructions how to use, &c.; and after satisfying themselves that it is what we recommend it to be, they can correspond with us in regard to territory wanted, our terms, &c. We desire a good reliable General Agent in every State in the Union, and we invite correspondence with working men who would like to make money. None need apply who cannot furnish satisfactory evidence of their integrity and reliability.

Any tinner can make the "Washer," or parties buying county rights, can obtain them through us at cost.

All persons are warned against manufacturing or selling the "Franklin Steam Washer" without authority from us. Any person infringing upon our rights in this matter will be prosecuted.

☞ Our Mr. PLEASANTS will have rooms at the Yarborough House during Fair week and will give any information desired.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We are well acquainted with Messrs. Barrow & Pleasants; as merchants they are doing a leading Business in their town. They are men of strict integrity and in every way reliable and responsible. They do what they engage to do.

A MENAGERIE LOOSE—EXTRAORDINARY SCENE AT A WRECK.—A correspondent, describing the wreck of the steamer Agra., off Galle, bound from Calcutta to London, via the Suez canal, says that after the vessel struck on the rocks the passengers and crew had barely time to escape to the boats, as the seas came tumbling over the sides, sweeping everything before them, carrying away one poor invalid sailor, and bursting open the cages and dens of an extensive menagerie on board, going home for the Zoological Gardens. The escape and striking out amid the waves of a crowd of tigers, elephants, etc., and their roars and screams, adding to the terror of the wretched passengers, presented a spectacle that will not soon be forgotten. One elephant managed to swim ashore, as did one of the inhabitants of the adjacent coast, who are said to be living in a state of siege, not daring to venture outside their barricaded doors. The Agra, which sank in deep water, belonged to the Red Cross line of steamers, plying between Calcutta and London, and was to have taken a number of passengers home from Ceylon. Her wreck comes on the heels of the Arracan, lost the other day on one of the Maldive reefs.

WHAT BEFEL A HOARDER OF GREENBACKS.—A man residing in Saucon township, this county, whose name our enquiry failed to ascertain, had hoarded in different places about his house twenty thousand dollars in greenbacks. When the recent panic came upon the country he grew fearful lest in the prevailing scarcity of currency his savings might be discovered and stolen. He went out and offered some of it to his neighbors on mortgage, and the offer being accepted, he went to take it out of its hiding places. Six thousand dollars were found to be so moulded as not to admit of identification and the saving farmer possibly knows now that his wealth would have been safer in somebody else's hands than his own. It would be a pleasure to get hold of his name, for while a man has a right to dispose of his money as he pleases, one whose method has proven disastrous would serve as a warning to all similarly disposed. And we do not doubt but that we may have many such in Lehigh county—penny-wise and pound-foolish.—Allentown (Pa.) Chronicle.

Alluding to the President's thanksgiving proclamation, the Hartford Times says: "If the paper money panic would only result in a sufficient financial hamstringing of the Vanderbilts, Drews, and other remorseless speculators who enrich themselves at the cost of tens of thousands of poorer and worthier people, to prevent them from a repetition of their butchering "corners" hereafter, there would be an added cause for thanksgiving.

SCOTT.—An appreciative critic thus writes of Tom Scott, the railway magnate: "He is a man of vast capacity, enormous industry and comprehensive mind, but he will certainly destroy himself, because he has an inordinate ambition, and doesn't know when he has had enough of anything."

The Hannibal (Mo.) Courier is responsible for the statement that the mayor of Keokuk recently discharged such of the jail boys as could say the Lord's prayer. Then a lawyer offered to bet him $5 that he couldn't say it himself. He declined on the ground that he didn't gamble.

Twenty tons of frozen beef were shipped from Melbourne to England in August in the ship Norfolk. The meat had been frozen by a new process patented by Mr. James Harrison, patentee of the method by which ice is manufactured in Australia.

Gov. Straw of New Hampshire, who was one of the judges of the baby show at the State fair last week, was surprised Saturday evening by finding on his doorstep an infant child.

The courts of Illinos are reported to have already over 8,000 divorce cases on their dockets, with accessions o new applications at the rate of 20,000 per annum.

Those that have tried it, say it is decidedly the VERY BEST. Feeling considerably flattered at the increasing demand where put in competition to so many kinds now on the market, that I shall in future manufacture it on a much greater scale.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, October 22nd, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bounteously of all the products of its soil, so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population is prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine, has visited our State: Now therefore, as it becomes us a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy; I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

Thursday, November 27th, 1873,

as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on that day, and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their wide country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 22nd day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL.

J. R. NEATHERY, Private Secretary.
